Skiers in Beaver Creek in southern Madison Range on 4/12/20 reported: "...There were probably a couple dozen [wet slides] in total, including several small ones that ran into Beaver Creek road. Every solar aspect had multiple slides from the past few days of warm weather, at elevations from the road up to 10000', but none were larger than any my partner and I observed near Lionhead on 4/9 (?D2)." Photo: S. Reinsel

Advisory Region
Southern Madison
Longitude

-111.36W
Latitude
44.87N
Avalanche Details: Wet slides in southern Madison
Southern Madison, 2020-04-13