Natural Avalanches near Lionhead

Lionhead Ridge Lionhead Range 12/24/2019 Code SS-N-R1-D2-O Elevation 9000 Aspect E Latitude 44.71450 Longitude -111.31800 Notes

Two natural avalanches near Lionhead Ridge likely broke during the storm on Christmas Eve. One slide appears to have broken on a weak layer in the middle of the snowpack, while the other only involved the new snow. Both were less than 100 ft wide and ran a couple hundred feet. They were on south east and northeast facing slopes at around 9000 ft.
